NOTES FROM A CITY EDITOR'S DAYBOOK—Commissioner C. L. Ballard's recent tirade against the state legislature in general, and Senator Dennis Collins in particular, is typical of similar outbursts from other city governmental functionaries throughout the state.

The storm centers around the recent legislative action raising the minimum salaries of police and firemen. Some call it an "invasion of home rule."

Sen. Collins, of DeKalb, came into the local picture because the municipalities committee approved Senate Bill 115 providing for the $300 minimum wage for policemen. Collins was chairman of that committee.

For the record, although Senate Bill 115 was approved by Collins' committee, Senator Trager, sponsor of the bill had the bill stricken from the senate calendar on June 19.

Another bill, House Bill 174, containing much of the same provisions of SB 115, was passed by the house on May 19 and, when it reached the senate, was directed to the committee on efficiency and economy which recommended its passage. On June 2 it was called for passage and was passed into law by the senate by a vote of 28-12 with Sen. Collins voting in the negative.

Another senate bill, No. 151, containing a higher minimum salary for firemen was reported favorably out of the senate's municipalities committee on April 23. However, when the bill was approved on June 24, 27-14, Sen. Collins again voted in the negative.

Although Senator Collins voted for higher minimum salary bills in committee, he defends that action (if it needs defending) by saying that he was merely passing final judgment to the senate as a whole. His voting record on the senate floor is very clearly in support of so-called home rule. Well, that's that for Mr. Ballard, Senator Collins and the record.

A point I think that escapes many champions of "home-rule" is that they don't act like champions when it's their time at bat.

Policemen and firemen have long needed more money. Cities had been forewarned three or four years ago that police and firemen were being underpaid and were organizing to do something about it. That their lobby outdid the lobbies of the Illinois Municipal League, the Taxpayer's Federation, et al, in the recent session of the legislature should provoke a mild hurrah from those who believe that cops and firemen are first class citizens.

Personally this writer feels a little happier because our police and firemen are better paid. And I believe that the feeling is widespread among other taxpayer-employers.

It is regrettable that municipal employes have to go to the state legislature with their facts of life.

FAMILY RECEIVES JOYFUL NEWS that Cpl. George W. Darfler, Dixon, has been released from a North Korean POW camp. The soldier's father, William H. Darfler, shows message from army to, left to right, Mrs. Caswell Holt, Marengo, the corporal's sister; Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Darfler, his brother and sister-in-law, and Mrs. Robert Jones, Marengo, his mother. Mrs. Holt is holding Cheryl Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Darfler. The family get-together was held Sunday in the Charles Darfler home in Amboy.

Plan Christmas For Dixon GI

Cpl. George Darfler Is Released From Commies

The family of a Dixon soldier released by the Communists in North Korea is planning a Christmas party in September to celebrate his return.

William H Darfler, Commodore hotel, received a telegram Saturday saying his son, Cpl George W. Darfler, 23, has been returned to military control in Korea, and will be returned to the United States at an early date. The soldier's mother is Mrs. Robert Jones, Marengo.

The family thinks George may be home in about four weeks. The Christmas party is being planned to make up for the past four Christmases which the soldier could not spend at home

The corporal's maternal grandmother is Mrs. Leo Giddings, 915 Douglas av. He has a brother, Charles, Amboy, and a sister, Mrs. Caswell Holt, Marengo. His father and brother are employed at the Reynolds Wire plant.

The family was visiting in Mrs. Giddings' home Saturday evening when Mrs. Jones heard a radio report that her son had been released. She said, "All I could hear was my son's name and I screamed. The others couldn't imagine what had happened."

George was a 1948 graduate of Marengo high school, and entered the army in August that year. He worked at Beiers bakery, Dixon, before entering service. The last time he visited his family was in October, 1948. He served in Japan, and was sent with Co. B, 31st Reg., 7th infantry division to Korea when the war started.

He was taken prisoner by the Reds Sept. 2, 1951. They held him in Prison Camp 1, Changsong, North Korea. In letters to his family, George said he participated in all kinds of sports while in the camp, and was not mistreated.

Truck Strikes, Kills Buck Deer

OREGON—(Special)—A semi-trailer truck driven by Richard Remmers, 32, Mt. Morris, struck and killed a large buck deer Saturday night.

Remmers, driving for Kable Transport company, said he was about five miles east of Oregon on Rt. 64 when the deer bounded into the path of the truck. The animal was killed instantly.

Conservation officer Paul Beebe, Forreston, said the buck, which weighed 240 pounds, is one of the largest seen in Ogle county in many years.

Typhoon Hits China Mainland

TAIPEH, Formosa — (AP) — A wild typhoon ripped across the China mainland today after sideswapping the big American base at Okinawa and the Chinese Nationalist island of Formosa.

The big storm which changed course and did not hit Okinawa or Formosa with its full force, struck the China coast about 150 miles south of Shanghai.

The typhoon, one of the mightiest ever recorded in the Pacific, was churning northwestward.

Okinawa escaped with minor damage, mostly to power lines, but Northern Formosa was lashed with heavy rains and winds up to 69 miles an hour

A record 12 inches of rain fell on Formosa's capital, Taipeh, in 12 hours.

Hundreds of flimsy riverbank houses collapsed. Several Chinese were reported drowned.

Byron Driver Held on Bond

OREGON — (Special) — A Byron man was scheduled to appear in Ogle county court today on charges of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor and carrying a loaded army rifle assembled in his car after the auto was demolished in an accident Sunday.

The auto driven by Russell Rapp, 45, swerved out of control while he was driving near Lake Louise.

Deputy Lee Westerman signed the traffic charge, while conservation officer Paul Beebe signed the complaint on the rifle.

Rapp was held under $500 bond.

Police to Check Theory of Murder in 5 Icebox Deaths

WEST MEMPHIS, Ark. (AP)—A deputy sheriff says a man recently twice threatened the lives of five children found dead in an old ice box.

Deputy Gladstone Williams said, "We plan to do a lot more checking on this point." He declined to identify the man.

Earlier Sunday, the father, 34-year-old J. A. Hallman, told newsmen he was sure the children were "murdered" because there were too many "funny things" involved. His wife agreed.

"Put in There"

Said Hallman: "I may die before I find out. But I'll never believe those kids crawled in there by themselves. I think they were murdered."

And his wife: "I think they were put in there."

Crittenden County Coroner T. H. McGough said the children were apparently playing in the box last Wednesday when the lid, which had been tilted back against the wall, flipped shut. Death was attributed to suffocation.

However, Hallman's oldest daughter, who arrived home with Mrs. Hallman, insisted an old plow point rested on the ice box lid.

Hears Screams

"Yes, I saw it right on top of the ice box as we came up on the porch," said 11-year-old Mary Eljen.

"How did it get there?" asked Hallman.

Among widespread rumors of foul play, a neighbor women was quoted as saying she heard screams coming from the Hallman house the day the children died.

Identify U.S. Worker As Former Commie

Bookbinder Had Access To Secrets

Also Testifies He Saw Worker Leave With Secret Papers

WASHINGTON (AP) — A government printing office employe identified a fellow-worker, Edward Rothschild, face-to-face today as a one-time member of the Communist party.

James Phillips, a bookbinding machine operator, told Senate investigators that Rothschild has no direct access to secret material in the government printing plant but could easily get such material from other workers.

Phillips confronted the slightly built, pipe-smoking Rothschild at a hearing by the senate investigations subcommittee, which is looking for evidence that secret material in the government printing office has been leaked to the Communists.

Identified In Cell

Phillips identified Rothschild as one of 25 or 30 persons who attended a private home meeting in 1938 to organize a communist cell in the government printing office.

Later, Phillips said, Rothschild and a Fred Sillers approached him on the street and asked him in a "threatening and belligerent" attitude whether he was for or against their efforts to organize such a cell.

Phillips said he thought it over and gave them their answer by going before the House Committee on Un-American Activities, then headed by Rep. Dies (D-Tex), and testifying about the whole affair.

Phillips also testified he once saw another fellow worker, Bertha Lomax, try to leave the government printing office with secret material in her pocket.

Continued To Work

That employe continued to work at the printing office for three months after she was caught, Phillips said.

Earlier, a former FBI undercover agent identified Rothschild's wife, Esther, as an active worker for Communist party organization in the 1940's.

Mrs. Mary Markward of Silver Spring, Md., pointed to Mrs. Rothschild and said she "most definitely" knew her in the Communist movement.

Mrs. Markward, whose role as an FBI undercover agent was disclosed over a year ago, said she could not say, however, that Rothschild was a member of the Communist party.

Neither of the Rothschilds said anything when confronted by the witnesses who named them as Communists.

Mossadegh Holds Power in Iran; Shah Flees to Iraq

Parliament Dissolved; Leaders Jailed; Government Readies Regency Council

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Aged Premier Mohammed Mossadegh held supreme power in Iran today after crushing a bloodless attempt to unseat him by supporters of Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi.

The young ruler and his beautiful Queen Soraya fled to neighboring Iraq and Communist mobs screamed for an end to the monarchy.

Acting swiftly in the wake of the attempt against him early Sunday, Mossadegh jailed top leaders of his opposition and dissolved the remnant of the Parliament. Though the 34-year-old monarch had not abdicated, the government was believed readying a regency council to take over his powers.

Coup Leader Hides

The leader of the coup attempt, Maj. Gen. Fazollah Zahedi, hid in the hills. In a statement to newsmen he claimed the Shah had given him an imperial decree ousting mossadegh and proclaiming Zahedi Premier.

Police and troops, armed with rifles and sten guns, started a determined hunt for the rebel leader. Tehran radio broadcast orders from Mossadegh to customs and frontier forces to prevent his escape abroad at any cost.

Tension lessened in Tehran today as truckloads of armed troops and Sherman tanks called out by Mossadegh rumbled back to their barracks and bases. Sunday the city had bristled with troops protecting the government against their titular commander in chief, the Shah.

100,000 Strong

Along the capital's main streets today shop owners cleared away broken glass left by anti-Shah demonstrators who stoned the monarch's portraits in shop windows Sunday night.

The mob of Communist and Mossadegh supporters—more than 100,000 strong—had packed the capital's main Parliament Square, howling for the ruler's blood. Banners demanded "Death to the Shah" and "End the dynasty."

The meeting hawled assent to a demand for a regency by Foreign Minister Hossein Fatemi, who was

Satellites Must Okay UN Ruling

U. S. Agrees to British Formula; Objects to India

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Russia appeared assured today of a seat at the forthcoming Korean political conference — if her satellites North Korea and Communist China want her there. India's chances of being asked to the parley dimmed, however.

Diplomats, gathering for the U.N. General Assembly beginning this afternoon, freely predicted approval of a carefully worded Western resolution tossing the issue of Soviet participation to the Communist side.

British Pattern

Two British Commonwealth countries—Australia and New Zealand—came up with this formula Sunday to patch up part of the split between the United States and Britain. Both agreed to support it.

The Anglo-American differences over the proposed inclusion of India at the conference table, however, remained as great as ever, and it was doubtful whether India could win a two-thirds majority in the 60-nation assembly.

U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge jr. said frankly yesterday that the United States would not vote for a British-sponsored resolution to include India in the conference.

Lodge insisted Indian membership would not be in accordance with the terms of the armistice agreement, which, in the U. S. view, calls for representation only of fighting participants in the conflict. India had only an ambulance unit in Korea and has frequently claimed neutrality.

Might Withdraw

Some diplomatic quarters predicted that India might withdraw her name in view of the strong U.S. opposition. Indian Delegate V. K. Krishna Menon already has declared his country is not a "candidate" for a place at the conference.

The resolution on the participation of Russia merely calls on the assembly to recommend that the Soviet Union take part "provided the other side desires it."

Lodge contended this was in line with his repeated demands that Russia must go as a representative of the Communists, if she went at all. He has insisted that Russia could not sit on the U.N. side or as a neutral.

British diplomats feel that the Russians would not go to the conference as representatives of the Red countries, which have been branded as aggressors by the U.N. This new formula, however, does not say specifically that Russia would be on one side or the other and it was felt by the British that it might be acceptable to all concerned.

New Tremors Rock Ionian Sea Islands

ARGOSTOLION, Greece — (AP) — New earth tremors, included one rated as strong, wracked the stricken Ionian Sea islands today as officials estimated the toll from the week's devastation at some 600 dead and 700 seriously injured.

Fifteen new tremors were recorded during a 12-hour period Sunday night and today. They heightened the islanders' near panicky desire to flee their homelands but otherwise could make little difference on the three islands, practically leveled by the past week of upheavals.

The new casualty figures were based on complete reports from the island of Ithaca and nearly complete reports from the other two stricken isles, Zakinthos and Kefallinia.

Naval ships of five nations continued to pour in thousands of tons of emergency supplies in an effort to feed nearly 120,000 hungry and mostly homeless islanders.

Sees Scars of War in Japan

AMBOY—Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Full have received a letter from their son, A/2c Donald Full, telling of his arrival at his station in the Far East. Following are some excerpts from his letter, describing his trip from Okinawa to his present location at the northern tip of Japan.

"True to their word, the Navy pulled into port at 11:30 a.m. July 29. . . . Incidentally, the scars of the war were still visible in the form of shell craters and holes in the cliffs.

Bands Play

"Immediately upon arrival, the bands began to play, the troops debarked, and the cargo was unloaded. I had never figured that autos were part of the load, but nearly 30 were put ashore, along with numerous other items. With nearly 1,300 troops, several civilian dependents, the ship's crew, supplies of food, etc., you may get some idea of the size of the ship. One day in port and we were again out to sea, our destination Yokahama. The calm Pacific now turned into turbulent water. We were warned of a possible typhoon with wind velocity forecast at 135 m.p.h. . . . With the first break of dawn, the restless sea had subsided and we were in the harbor of Yokahama.

"From the boat we boarded a train bound for Fuchu. . . . The trip to Fuchu was 27 miles and took four hours. The time did not seem too long, for I enthusiastically viewed my first encounter with oriental life. The older people appeared indifferent to our presence but the younger set waved eagerly. All of us tried to convey our feeling of friendship verbally.

"We reached Fuchu about 5 a.m. August 1. . . . We departed next day by train to Tokyo.

Curious Looks

"At the station, we waited with numerous other people for the train. They glanced at us curiously and we did likewise. The language barrier was too much of an obstacle to express any ideas. On the train, I received by first schooling in the Japanese language from a porter. He could speak a little English. A tech sergeant, who was traveling with us and had been a prisoner in Japan for 2½ years, acted as interpretor for us when we encountered difficulties. . . ."

"We arrived at Furamaki, the station nearest the base, at 8:30 a.m. August 3. Soon trucks and busses came to transport us to the base. We drove through the main thoroughfare, about 20 feet wide. This road had to accommodate two lane traffic and pedestrians. You could reach out and touch the houses and business establishments from the bus. I do not believe the state of these impoverished people is voluntary, but I could see no signs of a decent living. A few people were dressed in presentable attire, but most were in virtual rags.

"We finally arrived at our present station, Misawa Air Force Base. It is about 500 miles north of Tokyo and only a short distance from the northern tip of Japan. We have an outfit in our detachment that is a few miles north of us. On a clear day, it is reported that Russian soil is visible."

Donald is the second son of the Full family to serve in the Far East, their son Leon having received his discharge this summer. Another son, Roland is also a member of the Air Force still in this country. He is now enjoying a ten-day leave with his parents.

Donald's present address is A/2c Donald Full, 16393224, 1st RSM Box 125, APO 919 c/o Postmaster, San Francisco, California.

Roland's address will be A/1c Roland C. Full, AF 16443339, 3326 Students training squadron, Box D 33, Scott Air Force Base, Ill.

Mt. Morris Midshipman Ends Cruise

MT. MORRIS—Midshipman 3/C John M. Miller jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Miller, is spending a month with his parents after returning from a naval cruise on the light minelayer, USS Shannon.

"Mike" is a student at the naval academy at Annapolis, Md., and for two months has been on a cruise to South America. He returned Aug. 1, and is now on a 30-day leave in Mt. Morris.

While on the cruise Mike operated a gun training control on a quadruple mount 40mm antiaircraft gun.

There were about 3,200 midshipmen who were on the practice fleet which consisted of the battleships, Missouri and Wisconsin, aircraft carrier Saipan, cruisers, Macon and Albany, and 23 destroyers and auxiliaries. This training program for future officers includes practical instruction in seamanship, navigation, gunnery, engineering and communications.

At the close of the plebe year Mike ranked 66th in a class of 852. He attained his highest standing in chemistry, ranking eighth. A year ago the class of 1956 started with 1,150 enrolled.

While on shore leave in Sao Paulo, Brazil, a chance meeting with two instructors of the Sao Paulo universities resulted in a round of parties and sightseeing for the visiting middie. Climax of the week was a banquet given by the Sao Paulo Gazette, the city's largest newspaper for 15 midshipmen from the Shannon. A three-day trip to Rio de Janeiro by plane plane and shore leave in Trinidad were other events of the cruise.

Mike will report back to school at Annapolis following his 30-day leave here.

Since 1927 in the United States there have been 321,000 pedestrians killed in traffic says the National Geographic Society.

That's why high speeds are safe on the Illinois Central's highway. The wires strung along the tracks are part of the world's most complex and safest traffic system.

Trains don't dart in and out of line like auto traffic on a highway. The engineer of a fast train doesn't swing around a slower train just because the rails ahead look clear. He operates on schedules printed in timetables and on orders given to him by train dispatchers, who control the movement of every train on the railroad.

Electrical impulses speeding along wires and steel rails guard the movement of Illinois Central trains. Some of these impulses are automatic, signaling that the track ahead is clear or flashing a warning if it is not. Other impulses carry messages to and from dispatchers, so that they always know the position of every train under their supervision.

Each year the Illinois Central spends many millions of dollars improving these complex train control systems. For we are determined that our railroad shall provide Mid-America with fine, fast and safe transportation.

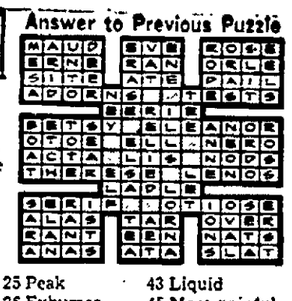
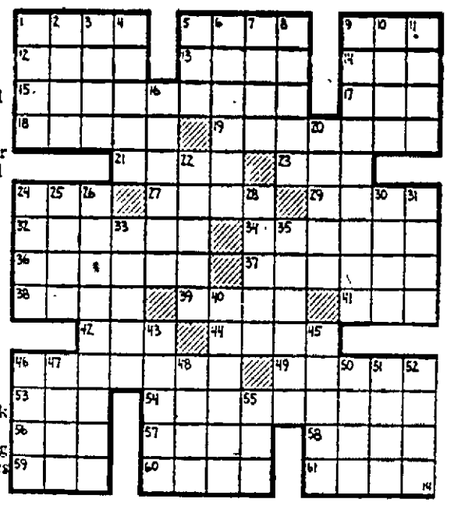
Answer to Previous Puzzle





Six-Year-Old Says Ike 'Bigger Than Hopalong'

DENVER (AP)—To 6-year-old Paul Henry Haley, who is dying of cancer, President Eisenhower is "a bigger and better man" than Hopalong Cassidy.

Now, to those who aren't parents of small boys, that may sound incredible.

But ordinarily a president doesn't cut much ice when children match him up with Hopalong.

Not so with Paul. Dwight Eisenhower is the hero of his tragically foreshortened life.

That's the result of a surprise visit the President paid Paul Sunday.

Reads the News

It started when Eisenhower picked up the Rocky Mountain News before church. There was a picture of cowboy-outfitted Paul, his arm around his mother Jean. The story was in the form of a letter by reporter David Stolberg.

"I'm writing this story to you, Mr. President, for a young fellow who hasn't learned to write," it said in part.

"He wants to see you, Ike, and although he doesn't know it, that's his dying wish. . . . He may live as long as two months, at most 18, doctors say."

The reporter said Paul is ill of cancer.

Eisenhower decided to see Paul. And he did, unannounced.

Maybe there has been a more astonished man than Paul's stepfather, Donald Haley, when he answered the door wearing dungarees, but it's doubtful.

He's Wide-Eyed

As Paul, wide-eyed and unbelieving walked into the living room, the President flashed his smile and said, "Paul, I understand you wanted to see me." Paul was flabbergasted.

They visited, Paul and the President, about five minutes. Then Paul got to inspect the presidential limousine.

The President told him he had a grandson about Paul's age—5-year-old Dwight David Eisenhower II.

Afterward, Paul talked about the car.

"It was nice and cool," he reported. "There was something to put your feet on, and there was a chair, I think it was for a baby."

Mrs. Haley wasn't home when Eisenhower called. Later, she said there just aren't "enough adjectives to describe how grateful we were."

Tells Reaction

"The President came in and shook my hand," Paul said, a smile on his wan face.

"I'm going out and buy a picture of the President and put it on the wall.

"I've got pictures of Roy Rogers and Hopalong Cassidy, too."

Later Paul went on the radio and paid Eisenhower his supreme tribute: "He's a bigger and better man than Hopalong Cassidy."

The President, if he were listening, must have liked that a great deal.

Stewardess Mangled by Speedboat

LAKE ARROWHEAD, Calif. (AP) — A young airlines stewardess was in a critical condition today after being mangled by the propeller in a fall from a speedboat owned by hotel owner Conrad Hilton.

The stewardess, Miss Boni Buehler, 25, of Hollywood, was pulled from the waters of Lake Arrowhead Sunday by Geary Steffen, ex-husband of actress Jane Powell. Steffen was water skiing behind the boat when the accident occurred.

At Santa Anita Hospital doctors said her left arm was cut off at the shoulder in the accident. Her left leg was amputated.

Sheriff's deputies said the speedboat was being driven by Quay Sargeant, 35, owner of a Los Angeles music concern. Sargeant said he did not see Miss Beuhler fall out of the boat but felt something hit the propeller so he stopped the motor.

Also in the boat at the time was Florence Beck, 20, of Tarzana, Calif. Sargent said the four of them had borrowed Hilton's boat.

Foxes Thrive

BLACK HAWK, Colo. (AP)—Astonished tourists have been reporting they've seen silver foxes racing through Golden Gate Canyon area north of here.

They're right.

A year ago a disgusted fur farmer, Arthur Crow, turned 120 silver foxes loose in the area. He said he had been offered only $5 each for them and they cost $22 apiece to raise.

The foxes have thrived in the mountains.

Menacing Mite

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) — A new menace has invaded Maryland truck farms.

It's called the ruesset mite and is so small you can hardly see it with the naked eye. Specialists at the University of Maryland say 200 of the mites, placed end to end, will only measure an inch.

The pests have been reported in tomato crops in seven counties. It is their first appearance in Maryland since they were discovered in California in 1940.

Scientists Find Rare Skeletons

PRAIRIE DU ROCHER, Ill. (AP)—Scientists have unearthed what they term a unique archeological find near here, yielding a complete record of American Indians dating back to 5000 B. C.

The find, announced Saturday, gives the scientists a consecutive record of the second oldest Indian culture, dating from 5000 to 1500 B. C. The oldest culture is the so-called Folsom or Paleo-Indian period dating back to about 12,000 B. C.

Howard D. Winters, a research assistant in anthropology at the University of Chicago, and John Buetner-Janusch, a research assistant at the University of Utah Medical school, led a party of 13 young men and women in excavating the sit, about 50 miles south of St. Louis.

Winters said skeletons of three adults, one adolescent and two children were uncovered. The bones were taken from the excavation, located at the base of an 82-foot bluff, and sent to Springfield, Ill., for examination.

The find was made in an excavation 25½ feet deep.

Rarest finds at the site near the Mississippi River were small bits of stone used as balance in throwing spears.

The excavation was sponsored jointly by the University of Chicago department of anthropology, the Wenner-Gren Foundation, the Illinois State Museum and the Illinois State Museum Society.

'Oklahoma' To Be Film

NEW YORK (AP)—The authors of "Oklahoma!" have announced their world famous musical, now running for its 11th straight year on the stage, will be filmed with a new wide-screen movie process.

A spokesman for Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II, who wrote and produced the show, said they agreed to film it after seeing samples of a movie technique created by Michael Todd, Broadway showman, and Dr. Brian O'Brien of the American Optical Company.

Photographer Begins Story of Months as POW

Editor's Note: Frank Noel, Associated Press photographer, is a free man again after more than 32 months as a prisoner of the Chinese Reds in North Korea. Now in Tokyo for medical and dental treatment necessitated by his long captivity, Noel has collaborated with AP Correspondent Olen Clements to tell of some of the things he and his fellow Americans saw and endured as prisoners of war. This is the first of three articles.

BY FRANK NOEL
As Told to Olen Clements

TOKYO (AP)—Life as a prisoner of the Chinese Communists was a thing of doubt and fear—doubt of what our captors would do to us next, and fear that an incautious word might be overheard by some fellow prisoners who had become an informer.

There is a strange thing about all the Communists I have met. They trust no one—especially their fellow Communists. Somehow, they managed to instill this same feeling of distrust into their prisoners, even though those prisoners had fought bravely side by side before being captured.

Some few men turned informers. Others, in the constant questioning by the Communists, said things the Communists did not like.

As a result, lots of us went into the "hole"—a cell in which a man could neither stand nor stretch.

One particularly bad hole was reserved for prisoners the Reds hated most. When you went into that hole, you stayed for weeks without ever leaving it, even to go to the latrine. You sat and slept in your own filth.

In winter you froze, day and night; in summer you sweltered. A little food was thrown in once in a while, and a Chinese guard was on duty at all times.

Many of us spent days, weeks, months, in the hole, simply as punishment for not thinking the way the Communists wanted us to think.

There are still Americans up there—some of them driven insane in prison.

I am sure there will be some of them there when the Chinese say repatriation has been finished. But there are other Americans today in Chinese territory. They are the ones who swallowed the Communist line and chose not to come back with the rest of us.

I personally spent many dreary months as a prisoner in Pyoktong, North Korea.

It was there that I saw two Russian pilots who had been shot down in fights with American jet planes.

Russians were flying MIG jets against the Allies all through the Korean war. There were many other Russians engaged in the Korean war.

I know seven American airmen—six officers and a sergeant—who were questioned by Russians after their capture. One of them, a captain, lost two teeth when a brutal Russian intelligence officer knocked him down.

When I was in Chonchong on a picture-making trip, I saw the Russian headquarters.

These are some of the things I saw and experienced in the long months of captivity.

One of the things I have learned at my present age, 48, is that a man can endure almost anything.

It was on the road between Koto and Hagaru, on the coldest night of my memory that I was captured.

The Reds trapped us Nov. 29, 1950, and we were taken prisoner next day, Nov. 30. The date is not important. It was a long time before any of us remembered it.

I was riding in a jeep with Maj. John J. McLaughlin of Savannah, Ga., and Lt. Frank Cold of Tampa, Fla., when the Reds ambushed us on a narrow road.

We were pinned down all night behind a railroad embankment which offered scanty cover. Fifty or 60 men were killed and about the same number wounded. The guns froze and the ammunition ran low.

I thought to myself, "Well, this is it."

Three young fellows were crying, whether from fright or fatigue I do not know. I do know that when that dread order came—meaning hand-to-hand fighting—they immediately quit crying. It seems to steel them, and they quietly fixed bayonets.

A Chinese called out in English, asking us to surrender.

Maj. McLaughlin asked the men what they wanted to do.

"I am willing to stand here and die if you want," he said. "You are not going to live forever. There is no ammunition and no help coming."

The men took about five minutes to talk it over. They voted to surrender if the Chinese would promise to leave the wounded to be picked up by Americans later. The Chinese agreed. They were combatwise veterans and so far as I could determine, they kept their promise.

We wrapped the wounded as best we could in sleeping bags and blankets and then surrendered.

Most of the next day we were kept standing on a frozen creek beneath a cliff to avoid detection by American planes. We had started on a living hell.

We hiked for months after that. Finally, after about 700 miles of seemingly aimless wandering, our captors took us to prison camp No. 5 outside of Pyoktong, on the Yalu river. There began for all of us a life of starvation, torture, illness, and, of course, death for many.

Now I have survived and am free again.

I am an out-patient of the Tokyo army hospital. I have just had eight teeth extracted, and am to go on until all are removed.

Wife Should Plan Meals When She Goes Visiting

I heard about a man who invited his poker-playing pals over for dinner one Saturday night when his wife was out of town.

Expecting cold cuts and doughnuts, the men were more than amazed when they were served the kind of meal they would have gotten if his wife had been at home—fried chicken, hot rolls and cherry pie.

The host let them worry awhile over how he had managed it all before he confessed. His wife had prepared the whole meal and put it in the freezer along with written instructions for warming the meat in the oven.

It's usually something like that when a family is able to manage as well with Mom away as with her at home directing operations.

GETS EVERYTHING READY

A wife will spend a week getting things all set to leave her family without her supervision for three days. Before she leaves she will have seen to it that the house is in apple-pie order. Clothes for each member of the family will be cleaned and ready to wear. The cupboard will be stocked with food, all errands run ahead of time, and probably the neighbors will take care of a few items.

Then having planned and worked for a week to get everything well organized, the family can get along without her for a few days.

When she comes home at the end of her vacation to a cluttered house and a happy and welcoming family she will have to hide a smile. They are proud they were able to get along so well without her.

How they were able to is the secret that nobody realizes.

What's Right?

Did you ever think of this? The sooner you answer a letter the easier it is to answer. Put it off a while and you've got to figure out just how to apologize for not writing sooner. So if you've a letter to answer, get at it.

The very promptness of your reply adds graciousness to whatever you have to say.

Pegler Cites Las Vegas Incidents to Disprove Martin Durkin's Recent Statements on Freedom and Fair Play

(Copyright, 1953, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Martin Durkin, President Eisenhower's Democratic Secretary of Labor, has come out for freedom of speech and fair play as noble American traditions. This declaration by the former president of the Plumbers' union, is inconsistent with his conduct in the case of Ralph Howard Alsup, business agent of the great Plumbers' local which covers Clark county, Nev., including Las Vegas. Alsup wantonly shot a brother in the bond of unionism for making a mild remonstrance on behalf of a fellow member of the Painters' union, who had been run off his job in favor of a newcomer who had paid a fresh initiation fee. The dispute was none of Alsup's business, for the Painters' union had a qualified local exercising jurisdiction.

Westbrook Pegler

The evidence showed that Alsup was drunk, as usual, and, being a notorious criminal with a multiple record of convictions for gunplay and a jail delivery in Texas, was looking for trouble, as usual. He was president of the Clark County Federation of Labor, vice president of the State Federation and business agent of the Clark County Plumbers' union by Durkin's tolerance and with Durkin's knowledge of his criminal character and record. Durkin never took any step to remove Alsup from any of his offices, although his own personal representative had ventured into Nevada and confirmed the facts in a report to Durkin.

The wounded man was an inoffensive, wandering craftsman of a type now familiar all over the country as workers follow the construction program of the government departments. After he recovered, the Clark county A. F. of L. racketeers, including Durkin's local subordinates, ran the poor fellow out of Nevada and even pursued him to Alaska, where he tried to hide from their persecution. Driven from Alaska, by other A. F. of L. unions, he found his way back to his home in Oklahoma. He wanted nothing from the unions but peace and freedom to work for an honest living.

It was hard to persuade him to go back to Las Vegas to testify against Alsup because Alsup had continued his vicious career, adding two more gun charges and a charge of wife-beating to his police record. The wives of some of the working plumbers in Las Vegas helped Mrs. Alsup and her children and the plumbers were compelled to pay for his court defense, well understanding that if they refused Alsup would pass the word to the contractors to lay them off.

Durkin knew all about Alsup's criminal career and knew also that he was a racketeer, conniving with the leading contractors to grant them a monopoly on construction jobs by denying other contractors the services of workmen under his control. For this Alsup and a group of contractors and suppliers of material were indicated under the anti-trust law and convicted. At last, Alsup went to the state prison at Carson to serve about one year for shooting the painter. But when I encountered Governor Charles H. Russell, of Nevada, at a conference of governors in New Orleans last June, Mr. Russell said Alsup was getting out of Carson that very day and never would have to serve a sentence of six months, federal, for the anti-trust job. By this time his boss, Durkin, was a power in the new Eisenhower administration.

The governor said Alsup was a confirmed criminal with a brutal disposition who would shoot anyone when his temper was aroused. He did not know why the Department of Justice was not enforcing his sentence for the conspiracy with the contractors.

This conspiracy is an old, familiar relationship between contractors or master-plumbers and the bosses of plumbers' locals and councils. It has been the subject of investigations and indictments under the Sherman act for 40 years, but it never dies out.

Durkin's home union, in Chicago, Pipefitters' Local 597, the largest in the world with 8,000 "regular" members, has a notorious record compiled largely during Durkin's active career. During World War II, when skilled labor was scarce in some areas, this local charged itinerant non-members a permit fee of $1.50 a month. An opportune fire destroyed some records but these might not have disclosed the amount collected from such licensees because this phase was not carried anywhere in the books. A chance discovery of an isolated record did indicate that 718 men were paying $4.50 a month for permission to work in the jurisdiction of Durkin's local in November, 1942. However, 1942 was not a "big" year in government war projects so this figure may be low.

During this period, Durkin was a member of the war labor board in Washington and overall president of the Plumbers' union for the entire country. He had served a hitch in a meaningless sinecure as director of the Illinois State Labor Department which has to do with statistics and practically nothing else.

When court action was brought by the local to compel an accounting by Secretary-Treasurer George A. McKinley, Durkin was on the side of the angels, but this was a belated stand because he was a power in the local throughout the time in question. McKinley refused to testify about the money lest he incriminate himself.

Following the conviction of Alsup and his fellow conspirators in Las Vegas, another outrageous condition was discovered, typical of the trade where the union prevails. Plumbers who had been flunked by the local examining board, charged that tests were rigged to make it impossible for new journeymen and master-plumbers to work on the new resort hotels, gambling houses and government works of prodigious cost and scope.

The power of local Plumbers' unions and local contractors to exclude workmen and contractors from the adjoining township, a few miles away, has become a flagrant racket. "Foreigners" are permitted to come in from adjacent neighborhoods, both as contractors and as journeymen but only under prohibitive license fees. They may also take the examinations, but the examiners often flunk qualified men of long experience, thus protecting their own local monopolies.

In Hollywood

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD — (NEA) — Exclusively Yours: John Agar's career counsel, Producer Hal Makelim, is denying that Shirley Temple has barred her ex-hubby from seeing his six-year-old daughter, Linda Susan. Agar hasn't seen the gal since Shirley's arrival in Hollywood six weeks ago but that, says Makelim, is because:

"John has a certain amount of pride. He desires to see his daughter and he prays for her. I believe any bitterness between Shirley and John will subside."

It's eye-popping but true: Fox casting director Billy Gordon has a TV set in his office. Sees actors in TV plays and sends for them, too.

JEANNE BLASTS 'EM

The Screen Directors Guild is up in arms about Jeanne Crain's charge, printed in the trade paper, Hollywood Reporter, that most movietown directors are anti-female and are responsible for the dearth of great love stories on the screen. Jeanne, I'm told, won't backtrack an inch despite a secret meeting called by the directors.

Jacoby on Bridge

Here's a Tip for Opening Bids

By OSWALD JACOBY

An opening bid of four in a suit is usually made on a hand of great offensive strength but with little defensive strength. Your purpose in making such a bid is threefold: You hope to have a play for the contract if you are allowed to become declarer; you want to make the bidding difficult for your opponents by forcing them to guess at their best contract at a high level; and you want to warn your partner that a slam is unlikely even though your hand is quite powerful for offensive purposes.

In today's hand, South held just about the strongest hand that is ever bid in this way. It is very difficult for the opponents to compete, but they can actually make a slam at spades. Instead, they allowed South to play the hand and make a game in hearts.

Opening lead—♣ Q

South played a low club from dummy on the opening lead and ruffed in his own hand. He then proceeded to lead out six rounds of trumps, discarding a diamond and four clubs from the dummy.

It is always difficult for the defenders to discard properly in hands of this sort. If they attempt to inform each other, they give information at the same time to declarer; and if they make no such attempt, they run into the danger of saving the wrong cards.

In this case West discarded all his clubs, and East discarded some clubs and some spades.

South correctly decided that West had begun with fewer diamonds than East. He therefore tried for a diamond trick by leading a low diamond from his own hand. West properly played low, and dummy's queen forced out East's ace. East shifted to spades, and South ruffed the second round. South now led a low diamond, forcing out West's king. Thus declarer's jack of diamonds furnished his tenth trick.

CARD SENSE

Q—The bidding has been:

North	East	South	West
1 Diamond	Pass	1 Heart	1 Spade
2 Clubs	Pass	?

You, South, hold: Spades 7-5-2, Hearts K-Q-7-3, Diamonds Q-5-2, Clubs 8-7-4. What do you do?

A—Bid two diamonds. This is a miserable hand, but there is no harm in taking your partner back to his first suit. He has asked you to choose between diamonds and clubs, and you indicate which suit you prefer.

TODAY'S QUESTION

The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades 7-5, Hearts K-Q-7-3, Diamonds Q-5-3-2, Clubs 8-7-4. What do you do?

ONLY FOUR MOONS

The astronomer Herschel, before 1800, thought he saw six moons moving around the plant Uranus, and it was not until about 1845 that Lassell, of England, produced two large reflecting telescopes powerful enough to show that it had only four satellites.

The Doctor Says:

Population Is Increasing But U. S. Is Still Well Off

By EDWIN P. JORDON, M. D.

In 1940 the population of the United States was close to 132,000,000; in 1950 it was just over 151,000,000; and in July, 1952, was estimated at almost 157,000,000. For the United States this represents an increase of 1.17 persons per hundred each year from 1940 to 1950, and 1.71 persons per year from 1950 to 1952. Similar increases, some of them even considerably larger, are occurring in other countries as well.

What does this great increase in the number of people living in the world mean to health? No one knows exactly, although it is almost certain that in some parts of the world there are already more mouths to feed than there is food to put in them for adequate nourishment.

It is interesting to note that about 150 years ago an Englishman by the name of Malthus predicted that with the increase in population then occurring it would not be long until the number of people on the face of the globe had been so increased that the products of the land would not feed them.

During that short space of time the population of the world has been multiplied more than four times, and it is probable that no more people are starving today than did so in Malthus' time. The reason for this is that the earth has been made more productive.

New areas have been explored and opened up to cultivation, and the yield of food substances per acre of land has been enormously increased by a multitude of methods, including fertilization, irrigation, new tools, better seeds and the like.

Malthus has not been alone in his pessimistic predictions. Twenty-odd years ago, when the United States was in the great depression, the birth rate fell off and stayed that way for several years. The experts then started to figure that the United States was going to reach its peak population in a few years, and that before long not enough babies would be born to replace the old folks who passed away. This was the exact reverse of Malthus' worry.

PEOPLE FOOLED EXPERTS

When World War II came the birth rate started to go up by leaps and bounds. All figures on the size of the United States population, and when the peak would be reached, had to be completely revised. Perhaps the experts weren't wrong, but the people didn't behave as the experts thought they were going to.

Where are we today? If the population grows to the point were the earth can feed no more, there will be mass starvation. Just when this point would be reached is difficult to predict. It appears that in some parts of the world starvation is already chronic, but others like ourselves are still comparatively well off.

Pat Wadsworth And Lieutenant Crockett Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Elwin S. Wadsworth, 819 North Galena av., Dixon, are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Pat, to First Lt. Richard Fraser Crockett of the United States Air Force. "Dick" is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Crockett jr., Chicago.

The July 18, afternoon wedding took place in Rockwall, Tex. Rev. Ed T. Hays of the First Methodist church officiated at the single ring ceremony in the church.

Beige silk shantung styled the two piece dress worn by the bride. The frock had a pleated skirt and boat neckline. Pat wore a white daisy halo on her head and a white orchid corsage.

Airline Friend

Miss Jane Clause, Lawrenceburg, Ind. an airline friend and roommate of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore navy shoes and a matching face veil with her navy linen sheath dress.

First Lt. Jerry Capehart, Bryan Air Force base, served as best man.

A supper for the wedding party and several guests was held at Chatley's in Dallas, Tex.

Reside In Bryan

Following a wedding trip to Galveston, Tex. the newlyweds are residing at 4321 Maywood, Bryan, Tex.

The bride who attended the University of Illinois for two years, was until her marriage a stewardess for American Airlines based at Dallas. While at the U of I her sorority was Chi Omega.

Lt. Crockett, a graduate of Lane Tech high school, Chicago, has recently returned from service with the 35th Fighter Squadron of the Fifth Air Force in Korea. He is now an instructor at Bryan Air Force base.

Can Tomatoes By Cold Pack

Home-canned tomatoes processed by the cold-pack method are superior in all ways to the hot-pack ones, according to research by the United States Department of Agriculture.

Frances Cook, foods specialist, University of Illinois college of agriculture, points out that the flavor, texture, color and fragrance are better in cold-pack tomatoes than in hot-pack. Also, the cold-pack method is easier and quicker to use.

Here are the directions: Wash good-quality tomatoes and peel them as you would for any canning. Just plunge them into boiling water for half a minute; then dip them in cold water for a few seconds before you peel. In peeling, be sure to cut away all of the core at the stem end, as it may cause spoilage if you don't. Prepare only enough tomatoes for one canner load at a time.

Pack the raw, cold tomatoes into sterile jars. Press them down gently into the jar to fill the spaces. Leave one-half inch of head space, and add a teaspoon of salt to quart jars and one-half teaspoon to pints. Process quart jars in a boiling water bath for 45 minutes and pint jars 35 minutes. An inch or two of water should cover the jars. Count processing time from the minute the water starts to boil.

Engagement

MT. MORRIS — Mr. and Mrs. William Hardt are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Shirley Ann, to Phillip Ballard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ballard, Oregon.

Shirley graduated from Mt. Morris high school in 1951. She attended the Electronic Radio and Television Institute, Omaha, Neb., and is now employed in the production department at Kable Printing company.

"Phil" graduated from Leaf River high school in 1944, and is an army veteran of World War II. He is now an apprentice in the electrotype department of Kable Printing company.

The wedding will take place Oct. 3, in the Mt. Morris Methodist church.

Miss Dolores Frerichs Bride

Dixonite Wed to Bensenville Man Saturday Evening

Bouquets of white gladioli decorated the Immanuel Lutheran church, Dixon, for the beautiful candlelight wedding Saturday evening of Miss Dolores Frerichs and Dale Bowman. "Dee" is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Frerichs, 1200 College av., Dixon, and her bridegroom's parents are the Donald Bowmans of York road, Bensenville, Ill.

Rev. P. H. Lechner officiated at the 8 o'clock double ring ceremony. Miss Alice Thomson, Dixon, was nuptial organist and Miss Rosemary Worland, Aurora, soloist. Miss Thomson played a prelude preceding the ceremony. Miss Worland's selections included "At Dawning" before and "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the lovely bride had her sister, Mrs. Billy G. Gamble, Rockford, as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were: Miss Betty Bowman, Bensenville, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Carol Ann Capp, Chicago, a college roommate and Miss Sally Ann Mazlo, North Chicago, a sorority sister.

Cathedral Train

A Chantilly lace bodice with an extra full skirt of nylon tulle over taffeta fashioned the bride's gown of white. The dress had an illusion neckline, short sleeves and was buttoned up the back. Appliques of lace to match that of the bodice were repeated on the gown's skirt and also on the cathedral train. The bride's fingertip length veil of nylon illusion was held in place by a tiara of gathered nylon net and seed pearls. Her choker pearls were a gift from the bridegroom and she carried a white prayer book upon which rested white Amazon lilies, stephanotis and ivy.

The bride carried out the traditional something old, new, borrowed and her something blue was a garter, the traditional gift of her sorority, Alpha Rho chapter of Pi Kappa Sigma.

Silk shantung styled the waltz length frocks worn by the bride's attendants. The halter type dresses were tight fitting with bouffant skirts and were worn with shrug jackets. The young women wore matching face veils and carried crescent shaped bouquets.

Wear Gifts

Mrs. Gamble's gown was of toast colored and her flowers, yellow daisy pom pons. The bridesmaids wore emerald green and carried bronze daisy pom pons. All of the bride's attendants wore her gifts to them, rhinestone necklaces and earrings.

William Shramek, Bensenville, served as best man and groomsmen were Bill Graham, Chicago Heights, fraternity brother of the bridegroom; George Reetz, Elmhurst and Gordon Swanson, Bensenville. Jerry Wooldridge, Dixon, cousin of the bride, and Richard Frerichs, Dixon, her brother, ushered. The men of the bridal party wore dark trousers and white jackets.

Jane Anne Gamble, Rockford, the bride's niece, and Suzanne Kauling, Springfield, cousin of the bride, were flower girls. Their floor length frocks were of yellow frosted organdy and tied with green velvet sashes. They carried nosegays of yellow pom pons.

The bride's mother wore navy blue with white accessories and a white glamelia corsage. White accessories and a pink glamelia corsage were worn by the bridegroom's mother with her linen and lace dress of heather blue.

At Loveland House

Lighted tapers in crystal holders and a four tiered cake of pink with white roses and fresh flowers on top graced the refreshment table for the reception in the ladies lounge of Loveland Community house.

Miss Barbara Minard, DeKalb, and Mrs. Lena Boos, Dixon, aunt of the bride, served the cake; Miss Jan Ryden, Chicago; Miss Helen Hawkins, Wasco, and Miss Babs Warner, Oak Park, sorority sisters of the bride, presided at the coffee service; Miss Nancy Whitcomb, Dixon, a sorority sister, Miss Dorothy Gorham and Miss Rosemary Vaile, Dixon, served the punch and Miss Phyllis Jokerst, Rock Falls, another sorority sister, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. James Merritt, Dixon, and Mrs. Ed Yingling, Polo, were at the gift table. The Young Women's Missionary Society of the church served the reception.

MRS. DALE D. BOWMAN

When the newlyweds departed for a two week's wedding trip to Washington, D. C., New York City, Niagara Falls and Detroit, the bride donned a forest green linen box-style suit with white accessories. They will reside in an apartment on Glidden road, DeKalb.

To Teach

A 1941 graduate of Dixon high school, the bride received her BS in education from Northern Illinois State Teachers college, DeKalb, this spring. While at NISTC she was active in President's Panel, the radio club and was in the 1951 Homecoming court and in the 1953 May Fete court. Before entering college she was employed in the state division of highways office, Dixon. This year she will teach first grade in Hinckley, Ill.

The bridegroom, who graduated from Bensenville high school and was in the European theater during World War II, will be a senior this year at Northern Illinois State Teachers college. He is a past president of his fraternity, Tau Kappa Epsilon.

The bride's parents entertained with a buffet party following rehearsal Friday evening.

Special Care On Tile Floors

Tile floors take to gentle treatment. Shampoo rather than scrub them, says Dorothy Iwig, home furnishing specialist, University of Illinois college of agriculture. Use a small amount of water, and dry the floor as fast as it is washed. A mild detergent or a cleaner recommended by the tile manufacturer is best. Never use gasoline, benzine, naphtha, turpentine or organic solvents. They sometimes soften the surface and may cause permanent discolorations.

Because of the composition of asphalt, rubber and cork tile floors, vigorous and abrasive scrubbing is not desirable.

Use a water-emulsion or self-polishing type of wax if you want to wax your tile floor. Don't use waxes that contain oil, grease or solvents, such as naphtha or turpentine.

New asphalt tile floors should not be washed for at least two weeks after they are installed. Rubber and cork tile floors should not be washed for four or five days. This is to allow the adhesive used in laying the floor to set thoroughly.

For daily care, a soft-bristled push broom or a clean dry mop is best. Never use oil mops, as they leave an oily film that catches dirt and dust.

Dixon Visitors

Mrs. George Trouth and daughter, Betty Jean, Huntsville, Ind., have returned home from visiting Mrs. Trouth's sisters, Mrs. John Howard and Mrs. T. S. Vick, Dixon. They also visited other relatives in Birmingham, Ala., and Nashville, Tenn.

Unification of Germany Proposed by Russians

West Regards Effort as Propaganda for Elections

WASHINGTON (AP)— Russia suggested Sunday night that Germany be reunified—and severed from military ties with the West—in what Western diplomats generally regarded as a propaganda move aimed at the overthrow of the Adenauer's Bonn government faces popular elections on Sept. 6 and, as diplomats here read the Russian proposals, Moscow was doing all it could to assure its overthrow by holding out hope for early unification of East and West Germany.

The most important question in Europe, the Moscow radio said, is the "peaceful reunification of Germany and the conclusion of a peace treaty with it."

Urges Conference

In notes delivered in Moscow to the United States, Britain and France, the Kremlin urged immediate creation of a provisional all-German government. It also urged the Western Big Three to support a peace conference on Germany of "all interested parties" within six months.

Moscow simultaneously called for an end to German reparations by next Jan. 1, and it summoned its East German puppets to the Kremlin for talks.

The all-German government, proposed to replace the Adenauer regime and the Red-controlled East German government, would be assigned the task of devising an election law which would permit free elections throughout Germany. Moscow called for "wide participation by democratic organizations"—obviously a reference to the Communist Free German Trade Union Federation and other Red-controlled groups.

End Reparations

Russia offered to give up more than three billion dollars worth of German manufacturers now earmarked for her from East Germany, while proposing that reparations payments end by Jan. 1 and that the Big Four powers limit German payment for their occupation costs to 5 per cent of the annual revenues from East and West Germany.

West Germany, with 48 million people, and the Red-ruled Eastern sector, with 18 millions, have been separated since the end of World War II. In recent months there has been a marked spurt in sentiment for unification.

As Western diplomats here and in other capitals saw the Moscow note, the idea was to capitalize on this sentiment in an effort to defeat the Adenauer government, which has been friendly with the Western powers.

The invitation to East German representatives to visit Moscow was seen, likewise, as an effort to build up the prestige of the East German government and to try to put Adenauer on the spot for refusing to agree to Communist proposals for all-German elections independently of the Western nations.

Livestock Judging Begins At Illinois Fair Today

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — (AP) —Hundreds of sleek animals paraded in judging arenas today as open competition began in livestock events at the Illinois State Fair.

Prized cattle, horses, mules, goats and sheep will undergo judges' scrutiny before the contests offering nearly $137,000 in premiums end next Friday.

In addition ot the livestock show, the fourth day of the exposition featured the start of Grand Circuit harness racing, high school band contest, special activities for the ladies, and a square dance festival.

200,000 Attend

Fair officials estimated 200,000 persons were on hand Sunday for the Veterans Day program, with bands, drill teams and bugle corps competing for $10,000 in cash awards.

Top honors and the Governor's Cup were captured by the men's drill team of Kankakee American Legion Post 85, which chalked up a score of 97.70 out of a possible 100 points.

Second place in the men's drill team contest went to the American Legion Post 755 of Manteno.

American Legion post 320 of Skokie repeated as champion in the senior drum corps event, receiving the Secretary of State's Trophy.

Grenadiers Win

The Grenadiers of Chicago Belmont Park Legion Post 597 also successfully defended their title in the junior drum corps competition. Kewanee Post 31 was second.

Other winner included: Class A bands, Logan Post 263; Class B bands, Roosevelt-Aurora Post 81; ladies and grils drill teams, Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1293 of Waukegan.

In other events, Bon Spiller of Coreville won first place in the governor's basket class in fruit judging and Eckert orchards of Belleville pocketed a blue ribbon for the best and most artistic display of fruit grown by an Illinois individual or firm.

Julius M. Westphal of Joliet grabbed honors for the best exhibit in the state fair stamp collection.

Woodford County 4-H groups took first prize in the county educational exhibit in the agriculture department.

Major events Saturday saw Carlyle Greathouse, 18, of Hindsboro, emerge as the first exhibitor of a grand champion by taking honors in the junior department steer judging, and the Virgil Ferree family of Mattoon crowned as the typical farm family of Illinois.

Elephant-Loaded Truck Saved by Police Officers

Dixon police put the brakes on the possibility of two circus elephants running amuck in the business district Sunday morning.

A driverless Mill's Bros. circus truck, parked near the Dixon National bank on Galena avenue and loaded with two elephants, started creeping down Galena avenue.

Norman Lyons, 908 Sinnissippi av., noted the impending calamity and notified Dixon police.

Officers J. E. Van Meter and R. E. McCoy came to the rescue. Van Meter held the truck by applying the footbrake while his partner, McCoy, located the driver in a Dixon restaurant.

WALTER LEPPERD, 17, of 321 Ottawa av., had just finished repairing the wrecked car (above) when this happened, according to Dixon police. The accident occurred at 1:50 p. m. Sunday in the 400 block on N. Galena av., when Lepperd ran into the rear of a tractor truck operated by Walter Blair Hamm, Hanover, Ill., the property of the Savanna Fabricating Co., Savanna. Dixon Police Officer R. E. McCoy, pictured above directing traffic, and Officer J. E. Van Meter investigating the mishap. McCoy reported that the Lepperd car was heading north on Galena avenue when it ran into the rear of the truck. No one was injured.

Three Dixonites Fined on Reckless Driving Charges

Three Dixon drivers were fined during the weekend after pleading guilty to separate charges of reckless driving in the city.

Robert W. King, 23, 109 Harrison av., was fined $10 and costs by Justice of the Peace Lawrence Boos, Dixon. He was arrested Saturday in the 500 block on College avenue by Dixon police officers Frank Chapman and William Boehme.

Jack Mayfield, 23, of 215 Hennepin av., was fined $25 and costs by Justice of the Peace Sterling Schrock following his arrest Sunday on, Hennepin avenue by Police Sgt. B. R. Lorenzen and Officer G. D. Camery.

Lyle Taylor, 1006 Third av., was fined $25 and costs by Schrock after his arrest Sunday by Camery and Lorenzen on Hennepin avenue.

Both Mayfield and Taylor were arrested at 1:50 a.m. for driving in a reckless manner on Peoria avenue, First street, and Hennepin avenue, police reported.

Farmer Changes Plea on Weeds, Fined $10, Costs

Frank A. Glasser, Palmyra township farmer, was fined $10 and costs Friday after pleading guilty to a charge of failing to destroy noxious weeds.

Glasser was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Sterling Schrock, Dixon, after being arrested by Lee county authorities in July on a complaint brought by the Palmyra township weed control commissioner.

The defendant changed his July 14 plea of not guilty made before Dixon Justice of the Peace Edwin Merrick. The case was then continued and referred to Schrock's court.

Obituaries

FRANK W. MEYER

WEST BROOKLYN — Frank W. Meyer, 84, West Brooklyn, died at 10 a.m. Sunday in the Mendota Community hospital after being a patient for 10 days. He was ill during the last year.

Meyer was born March 4, 1869, in Arlington, Ill., the son of Baltazar and Catherine Kurtenbach Meyer. He married Izabel Rennie, Arlington, on April 16, 1891.

Surviving are a son, Otto M., Chicago; a daughter, Mrs. Thais Gehant, West Brooklyn; 10 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, wife, three daughters, two brothers and two sisters.

Meyer had been active in the grocery business in Ladd, Ill., for 12 years prior to establishing a store in West Brooklyn in 1902 which he operated for 39 years.

He was a member of the board of directors of the H. F. Gehant Banking Co. since its organization and retired as president of the board last year.

Meyer was a member of the Catholic Order of Foresters.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday in the St. Mary's Catholic church, West Brooklyn, at 9:30 a.m. with the Rev. James Lafferty officiating. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

seized by the coup-attempting imperial guards and held for 6½ hours in a palace strongroom. Fatemi in a newspaper blast called the Shah a "snake" who had "robbed the property and chastity of the people."

'Ran to British'

There was no immediate statement from the Shah in Baghdad. He and his queen flew in his private plane from a Caspian Sea resort in north Iran where they had been vacationing. They arrived in the Iraq capital unheralded and went into seclusion in a government guest house.

The Shah's flight to Iraq drew new government blasts at Britain, a favorite whipping boy for Mossadegh and his followers. Fatemi told the mob the Shah, "a traitor . . . ran away to the nearest British Embassy." This referred to Iraq's friendship pacts with Britain.

Warn Americans

After the meeting ended, the crowd broke into smaller groups which roamed the streets stoning the Shah's photos. There was no other violence reported, however, and the coup attempt appeared to have been put down without bloodshed.

U. S. Embassy officials warned Americans to stay off the streets. Embassy offices were closed Sunday.

Dixon Motorist Reports Crash

An accident Sunday night on the road leading to the Dixon country club, near the Lowell Park blacktop, was reported today to Lee County Sheriff Charles Redebaugh by Don Spotts, 18, of 1012 Madison av.

According to Spotts, he ran the car he was driving into a cement culvert on the country club road when he was blinded by the lights from another car while turning off the Lowell Park blacktop. Spotts said the other car was driven by Robert Hummel, Dixon.

OREGON — (Special) — A lawsuit totaling $21,016.55 was filed Saturday in Ogle county circuit court against A. G. Showalter, doing business as Natural Gas and Appliance company, and Pearl Kelly Showalter, Byron.

The suit was filed by the Union Carbide and Carbon company of New York City, and asks collection for merchandise delivered.

Showalter reportedly is not operating the business at present.

Kessler Admits Passing Phoney Checks in County

Rudolph Kessler, 31, Rt. 3, Dixon, charged Friday with assault with intent to commit murder in his Thursday night Lee county jail break, admitted Saturday to passing fictitious checks in Lee county.

Lee County Sheriff Charles Redebaugh said today Kessler admitted, in signed statements, passing four checks in Dixon, one in Amboy, and one in Sublette.

The prisoner is being held in the county jail on parole violation charges brought by Sterling Schrock, Dixon, district parole officer. Kessler was paroled from Joliet penitentiary in March after serving five years and 11 months for passing fictitious checks in Lee county.

Redebaugh said the checks range in value from $20 to $87.50. It has not been determined definitely whether his activities extended beyond the county line.

Kessler will be questioned about other bad checks reported since his release from the penitentiary.

Thus far his record includes passing bad checks in 1945 when he was placed on probation in Lee county; his sentencing in 1947 to Joliet penitentiary for passing more bad checks and his jail break and assault Thursday on Mrs. Esther Schwank, Lee county jailer.

Mrs. Schwank was released today from KSB hospital after suffering multiple lacerations about the head when Kessler beat his way to freedom.

He was captured about 50 minutes after his break by Dixon police officers and returned to the county jail.

Petersburg Shorthorn Is Champion

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — (AP) —The first championship in open cattle judging at the Illinois State Fair was won today by Louis H. Leinberger of Petersburg, who showed the blue ribbon Shorthorn steer.

The Leinberger entry was hard pressed by the sleek entry exhibited by Martha Lull, 15, of Aurora, a junior department contestant on Saturday, who copped reserve honors.

Dixon College Alumni Renew Old Friendships

Nearly 100 Attend Reunion In Loveland Saturday Night

Notwithstanding the fact that the Northern Illinois Normal school and Dixon Business college ceased operations in 1913, 40 years has not lessened the ardor of any of the alumni of that institution, and Saturday evening at the Loveland Community House nearly 100 former students gathered to celebrate their reunion.

The address of the evening was delivered by the Rev. George J. Curran, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Dixon. He stressed the advantages of an education, the pleasures of association and recalled memories of former days. Tracing the history of man in the early days, Mr. Curran pointed out that out of the life and education together there evolves a history of life; that education in itself is a long process and only in time and after a study of the history of man do we come to realize what we really owe our Creator.

Begins in Home

True education begins in the home abetted by the Church followed by public schools and higher learning but only out of the institution of life as a whole do we prepare ourselves for service, he said.

When we cease to learn we cease to live and all too late appreciate the better ways in which we might have applied our early education, Rev. Curran continued. Language and communication play a great part in widening our horizon during the process of life and the need for knowledge of different languages increases as one travels farther from home.

Recalling the saying that a good man in an ox cart is more symbolic of civilization than a bad man in an airplane, he said that although we live in an age where evidence of great power and advanced technical ability is all about us, it is not speed and power in the hand but goodness in the heart and willingness of each one to do his part rather than shun it and expect other men to do more than their share which improves conditions in the world and our friendships with others.

Mr. Curran closed his talk with the thought that in all the process of life, a real understanding and appreciation of the gifts of God, the acceptance and use of them, leaves us richer in culture, faith and hope.

Judge Speaks

Judge Grover W. Gehant, who had just returned from a European trip with Mrs. Gehant, related some very interesting experiences of their trip.

Registration took place in the East lounge and the afternoon was spent renewing old friendships and making new ones. Each year new faces appear as many desire to return to Dixon where college days were spent.

Horace Street played the march as the guests entered the dining room and took their places to enjoy the roast chicken dinner served by the ladies of the Christian church.

The long tables were decorated with streamers in the college colors of orange and black and matching bouquets of zinnias. An artistic flower arrangement, in keeping with the color scheme, adorned the speaker's table, a greeting from Harold Cook.

The group enjoyed singing old favorite college songs at frequent intervals throughout the evening, with Muriel Yenerich Mattox at the piano.

President In Welcome

President W. H. Nettz welcomed all present. L. W. Miller, president emeritus, whose efforts largely contribute to the success of the annual reunion read the annual alumni poem written by Mrs. Adella Helmershausen, Franklin Grove, an 1891 graduate. A copy of "Memories," a poem written by Alvin T. Hurst, Chicago, dedicated to the crumbling walls of the Dixon college, were given to each member present.

The president introduced Mrs. Susan Dille Boyd, daughter of a brother of forrmer President J. B. Dille, and she greeted the members.

Miss Clyde Carr recited her memories of college days in a poem entitled "The Land of Long Ago."

Francis Froulick, Kansas City, entertained with a bit of verse and witticism.

Henry C. Warner was called upon for some reminiscences.

Mrs. Wilbur Schreiner sang "Homing" by Del Riego. Mrs. Benson accompanied her at the piano.

The minutes were read. Officers reelected were, W. H. Nettz, president; L. W. Miller, president emeritus; Judge Grover W. Gehant, Atty. Mark Keller, Ada Wood and Horace Street, vice presidents; Miss Esther Conley, secretary; A. T. Hurst, Chicago, assistant secretary.

Dedicate Rifle Range to Sgt. Bob Missman

A new rifle range at Camp Lowden near Oregon was dedicated Sunday in memory of Marine Sgt. Robert A. Missman, 21, killed in action in Korea the day before the truce went into effect.

The sergeant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Missman, Nachusa, his sister, Lynn, and three brothers, Roger, Steven and Michael, attended the ceremonies. They received a bronze plaque inscribed, "In grateful memory of Robert A. Missman, who sealed his Scout pledge of loyalty to his country with his life. Presented by Blackhawk Area Council, Boy Scouts of America."

Speakers for the ceremony were scout executive H. H. Holmann, Rockford, and camp clerk, Kenneth Merwin, Woodstock.

The dedication was held during the three-day convention of the Order of the Arrow at Camp Lowden. The sergeant was a member of the Order of the Arrow and an Eagle scout of Dixon explorer post.

When word of Missman's death was received at the camp, memorial services were held and the flag was flown at half mast.

Swissville Man Charged With Recklessness

Ivan Toland, 20, Swissville, was released today on $1,000 after being arraigned in Lee county court on a charge of reckless driving.

Judge Grover Gehant continued the case to Thursday. Toland was brought into court on an information prepared by State's Atty. James Bales, charging the defendant with reckless driving on Aug. 9.

According to the information, Toland drove recklessly while heading east on Ill. Rt. 2, near the Cement Plant hill.

Action was taken against him on a complaint brought by Graydon Moll, Grand Detour.

Moll claimed Toland passed his car, also heading east on Rt. 2, at 50 miles an hour and then cut in front of him, slowing down to four or five miles an hour.

When he tried to pass Toland, the defendant drove his car on the left hand lane, refusing to let him go by.

Toland was arrested by John Stouffer, chief Lee county deputy, on a warrant issued by Justice of the Peace Edwin Merrick, Dixon. Merrick bound the case over to the county court.

Dixon Youth Fined On Conduct Count

Jack Vaile, 319 Sixth st., was fined $10 and costs Sunday after pleading guilty before Justice of the Peace Sterling Schrock to a charge of disorderly conduct.

Vaile was arrested at 12:50 a.m. Sunday by Dixon Police Officers Trotter and Camery on Hennepin avenue.

Although no time was given on police books, Vaile was also reported involved in an accident Sunday by Leo Gorman, 338 Everett st., who told police Vaile ran a car into his truck, which was parked in front of his residence.

According to police, Vaile agreed to repair the Gorman vehicle.

Legion Clinches District Crown

Dixon Wins Two Games On Weekend

Whip Byron, 15-3, For Title; Stop Grundy Center, Ia.

Dixon's Junior American Legion baseball team closed out the regular season with a pair of victories and the District 13 league title over the weekend.

Sunday, the local nine handed Byron a 15-3 defeat to gain the district title. It was the second straight win for Dixon, giving them the best two of three game series.

Saturday, Grundy Center, Ia., coacher by Earl "Poogie" Page, dropped a 13-7 verdict to the locals with Dean Nicklaus leading the way for Dixon with a pair of three run homers.

Boyle Homers

In the league final yesterday, Dixon scored once in the first and then iced the game with three in the third when John Gorman doubled with one on and scored when Leo Boyle clouted a four bagger.

Byron closed the gap to 5-3 after four and a half innings, but Dixon quickly left no doubt as to the outcome with an eight-run outburst in the bottom of the fifth.

Larry Butler hurled all the way for Dixon to gain credit for the victory. Stahl, who started for Byron, was the loser.

Hill Catches

Bob Hill, catcher for Zeien Buick in the Junior chamber of commerce league, caught the last three innings for Dixon and turned in a fine job.

Nicklaus almost single-handedly won the Saturday contest for Dixon as he homered in the first inning with two men on and then blasted out another homer in the seventh with two men on to give Dixon an 8-6 lead.

Nicklaus Homers

After Dixon had gone ahead in the first inning, Grundy Center tied it up at 5-5 in the sixth and went ahead in the top of the seventh, 6-5. But Dixon bounced back to score three runs on Nicklaus' second homer in the seventh and added five more in the eighth.

Boyle hurled all the way for Dixon to pick up the win. Van Fassen, who came on in the sixth was the losing hurler for Grundy Center.

Rate Robin With Baseball's Best

Editor's Note: Robin Roberts has won his 20th game of the 1953 season—the fourth straight year he has won 20 or more. This is a feat only a few pitchers have accomplished. He has established himself as one of the modern pitching greats. Joe Reichler prepared a series of five articles on Roberts. This is the first of the series.

First of a Series
By JOE REICHLER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The name Robin Roberts sounds like a celluloid creation. And there are times when National league batsmen vow that Robin Roberts, baseball's best pitcher, is not real.

The phenomenal Philadelphia Phillies' righthander won't be 27 until Sept. 16 but already the elder statesmen are ranking him with such mound immortals as Christy Mathewson, Grover Cleveland Alexander, Walter Johnson and Lefty Bob Grove.

Hans Lobert, a teammate of the great Alexander and Mathewson, says: "Roberts is every bit as good as Alex and Matty were at the same stage of their careers."

Robin Roberts

"Greatest Ever"

Cy Perkins, Philly coach who put in 15 years behind the plate with the Athletics and Yankees, goes a step further.

"Robbie is the greatest pitcher I've ever seen in my career," he says. "And I caught such great pitchers as Lefty Grove, George Earnshaw, Ed Rommel, Lefty Gomez, Charlie Ruffing, Herb Pennock, Bob Shawkey, Joe Bush and Sam Jones."

Philadelphia Manager Steve O'Neill sums it up by saying: "before he is through, Robbie may be as good as any pitcher who ever lived.

Tremendous Strides

Naturally, there is no way of knowing whether Roberts will ever live up to the expectations of his keenest admirers. But one thing is certain. No pitcher in the last 25 years, with the exception of Dizzy Dean and Bob Feller, has made such tremendous strides in so short a time.

This marks Roberts' fifth full year in the big leagues and already he has rolled up four 20-victory seasons. All have come in succession. The former baseball and basketball star at Michigan State won 20 games in 1950, 21 in 1951, soared to 28 triumphs last year and has an outside chance to capture 30 games this year.

The last pitcher to win 30 games in a single season was Dizzy Dean, in 1934. Only 11 pitchers have won that many games since the turn of the century.

Has Everything

Roberts has everything it takes to become one of baseball's greatest pitchers—size, weight, endurance, stuff, disposition, brains, heart, determination and good habits. The fluidity of Roberts' motion—effortless style and complete co-ordination of legs, hips, back, shoulders and arms—should enable him to pitch 15 or 20 more years. Since he started pitching in college, he has never had trouble with his arm.

"I've seen pitchers who were much tougher to hit than Robbie," said O'Neill. "Our own Curt Simmons has more stuff. Roberts is often hit freely—until another hit would send runs across the plate. Then he turns on the fire and it is all over."

Joliet Little League Gains Semi-Finals

FORT WAYNE, Ind. — (AP) —The Joliet, Ill., Little League team meets Bay City, Mich., tonight in a semi-final game of the Midwest baseball tournament.

Columbus, Neb., plays Parma, Ohio, in the other semifinal. The winners clash Tuesday night for the right to advance to the Little League finals at Williamsport, Pa.

The Joliet youngsters beat Kenosha, Wis., 4-1 in a quarterfinal game Saturday. Columbus beat Mt. Vernon, Ill., 7-4 for its quarterfinal victory.

Capable Cat

ST. LOUIS — (AP) — Harry (The Cat) Brecheen, the Brownies' 38-year-old lefthander, still is capable of some effective pitching.

Brecheen pitched 3⅔ hitless innings of relief ball in Sunday's first game against the Cleveland Indians to nail down the Brownies, 7-6, win.

It was "The Cat's" fifth triumph against 10 losses.

MAJOR LEAGUE STARS

BATTING, DUKE SNIDER, DODGERS—Hit three home runs in Brooklyn's doubleheader sweep over Pittsburgh, 3-1 and 9-5.

PITCHING, RALPH BRANCA, TIGERS—Held Chicago White Sox to four hits in posting third American League victory 3-2.

SHUCKS; HE STRUCK OUT—Bob Bingham of Santa Maria, Calif., is 12. He was a mighty tearful lad when this picture was made, just after he struck out—for the final out with two teammates on base—in a Little League tournament finals game at Santa Monica, Calif. Vancouver, B. C., won the title with a 1 to 0 no hitter. (AP wirephoto)

Bradley, Kentucky Back In NCAA's Good Graces

CHICAGO (AP)—Two of college basketball's perennial powers, Kentucky and Bradley, were back in business today —cleared of athletic irregularities which brought a year's punishment.

Kentucky now can wheel out the big, talented team which was forced to sit out the 1952-53 season and Bradley is eligible to play in the national tournament, from which it was barred last winter.

New Cases Up

The National Collegiate Athletic association's council put these institutions back in good standing Sunday and also closed the case on Midwestern of Wichita Falls, Tex., which had drawn a slight reprimand for its recruiting tactics.

With this old business out of the way, the council was able to turn to the new—the cases of three other members who have been accused of violating the athletic code.

These are reported to be Notre Dame and Michigan State, two of the country's best known universities which produce champion and championship-contending football teams, and Arizona State at Tempe.

Statement Today

Michigan State had the No. 1 football team in the country last year and is heavily favored to repeat. Notre Dame, a past champion, is regularly in the first 10. Arizona State has been moving toward big time, a fact which probably has brought its athletic policies under scrutiny.

The NCAA council said an announcement on the status of the so-called "unholy three," never identified officially, may be expected around late today.

Record Crowd

CHICAGO—(AP)—Sunday's doubleheader between the Milwaukee Braves and Chicago Cubs, which drew a season's record crowd of 39,903 to Wrigley Field, boosted the Brave's home and road attendance total to 2,080,912. At home the Braves have played before 1,344,835.

Two Other Local Duos Gain Finals

ROCKFORD —(Special)— Jack Hipple and Joe Cushing brought home the only doubles championship in Northern Illinois Tennis Association tournament play this week with a 6-1, 4-6, 6-4 victory over Louis Tangorra and Joel Peterson of Rockford.

Hipple and Cushing gained the boys 15 and under in their second match of the tournament. The local youths drew a first round bye and then tumbled Tom Lindquist and Steve Heller of Sterling.

Henry Utley of Dixon and Julian Bruening of Rockford, who joined forces for the tournament, bowed in the finals of the boys 18 and under division, 6-2, 5-7, 6-4, to Bud Burke and Joe Weicer of Janesville. Earlier the mixed duo had tumbled Dale Bjurstrom and Jack Lofgren of Rockford after winning the first round by default.

In the girls 18 and under bracket, Jean Buckley and Mary Grower lost to Linda Butler and Vonetta Pedlow of Rockford, ultimate winners. The Dixon team lost in the semi-finals.

Jean Buckley and Nancy Long fell to Bea Fullerman and Carrie Yahn of Janesville in the womens semi-finals, 6-0, 6-3.

In the girls 15 and under division, Mary Gower and Kathy Carlson made it to the finals before losing to Elaine Budde and Linda Butler of Rockford, 6-1, 6-4.

George Covert and Floyd Acker, lone mens doubles entry, were eliminated in the first round by Andy Shillinglaw and Bob Desheimer of Aurora. Shillinglaw and Desheimer won the men's title.

Changes Made In This Week's Church Games

Several changes in the Church softball league have been made and three girls games have been listed as the league heads into the last two weeks of play.

Tonight, the Second Baptist Apples play the Amboy Peaches at 7 p.m. in a girls game.

Tomorrow night, regular league play sends Amboy against St. Patrick in the first game. This game was originally set for Aug. 25. In the second game, Grace meets Bethel.

Thursday, Methodist and Brethren collide in the opener and St. Paul's and Prebyterian meet in the nightcap.

The league schedule winds up with a single game Aug. 25 which pits Four Square against Second Baptist.

Friday night, the Grace Plums meet the Amboy Peaches in the first girls game, while Second Baptist Apples tangle with the Bethel Grapes.

North American Title Bout Set for Bantamweights

NEW YORK— (AP) — The neglected bantamweight class, a lively boxing division in the days of Pete Herman, Joe Lynch and Tony Canzoneri, make a comeback tonight with a North American championship match.

Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway will be the scene of the 12-round match between Henry (Pappy) Gault of Spartanburg, S. C., the North American champ, and Billy Peacock, former Philadelphia amateur titleholder now fighting out of Los Angeles.

The bout between the two 118-pounders will be seen on television (DuMont) in some sections of the nation.

Jimmy Carruthers of Australia holds the world bantam crown on the strength of two knockout wins over Vic Toweel in South Africa.

Timely Hitter

CHICAGO — (AP) — Even when he doesn't hit home runs, Eddie Mathews delivers timely blows.

The slugging Milwaukee third baseman, who leads the National League in homers with 37, drove out a two-run triple in the eighth inning of Sunday's opener against the Chicago Cubs. The blast sent in two mates, and gave the Braves an uphill 4-2 victory.

Marathon Race

PEORIA, Ill. — (AP) — Averaging 59.68 miles an hour, Bob Switzer of McHenry, Ill., won Sunday's big-boat division of the annual Peoria-Illinois River Marathon. The race covered 100 miles on the river from Peoria to Spring Valley, Ill., and return. More than 100 boats were entered.

White Sox Lose While Yanks Win Two; Braves, Bums Win

By JACK HAND
AP Sports Writer

With six weeks to go, the baseball season has just about boiled down to a question of who's going to pitch the world series opener for the New York Yankees and Brooklyn Dodgers.

Both could blow the pennants. Remember 1951. But with 40 to play and 8-game leads, the smart guys are getting buddy-buddy with the Yank and Dodger ticket sellers. Both league leaders have identical 77-37 records.

The Yanks enjoyed a profitable Sunday, picking up a game and a half on Chicago and two full games on Cleveland by knocking off the Philadelphia A's 8-0 and 7-3. Chicago bowed to Detroit's Ralph Branca 3-2, and Cleveland dropped a pair to the last-place St. Louis Browns 7-6, and 7-5. Washington and Boston divided a double header in the other American league games, Mel Parnell winning his 17th for the Red Sox 4-1 and Spec Shea taking the second for Washington 7-4 despite Ted Williams' home run.

Braves Keep Step

Brooklyn ran its winning streak to nine by knocking off their old Pittsburgh sparmates twice 3-1 and 9-5, but Milwaukee kept step by sweeping two from Chicago 4-2 and 6-2.

The New York Giants ruined Robin Roberts' bid for his 21st victory by knocking him out in the eighth inning of an 8-1 game and also whipped the Phillies in the second game 4-2. Cincinnati edged St. Louis 3-2 but the Cards grabbed the second 6-2 behind Stu Miller. The split left St. Louis tied with the Phils for third place, 15 games back.

Vic Raschi came up with a five-hit shutout of the A's to win his 10th with the help of Phil Rizzuto's batting. Little Phil hit a homer with two one and drove in two more with a double to down Alex Kellner.

Reynolds Blasted

Allie Reynolds, surprise starter, lasted only one inning of the second game when the Yanks needed a five-hit relief chore by Johnny Sain to whip Charley Bishop. Rizzuto drove in the tying run and scored the tie-breaker in the sixth.

Branca had to stave off a ninth-inning rally by the White Sox to win for Detroit. The tying run was on third when pinch hitter Bob Elliott flied out to end the game.

Williams Homers

Williams made his first start for the Red Sox in the second game after a few pinch-hitting jobs but enough to save Boston. Ted didn't play the entire game, leaving after five innings in accordance with previously announced plans for his gradual conditioning program.

Lew Burdette, on relief, and 23-year-old Bob Buhl, with a three-hit complete game, did the pitching for Milwaukee against the Cubs. Eddie Mathews' triple in the eighth scored two runs for a 4-2 edge. Buhl didn't allow a hit until Dee Fondy opened the sixth with a double and coasted home after the Braves KOed Bob Rush in the fourth.

WHAT'S TH' SCORE
by Norm Follow

NOW THAT THE JUNIOR AMERICAN LEGION baseball team has concluded its season and uniforms have been turned in to be stored away for another year, Manager Red Flanagan figures he will have time to brush up on his golf game.

I played with him once, probably the only time he made it to the course all year, and it didn't look like Red would need much brushing up. Red converts all the power of his baseball bat swing into his golf swing without any trouble.

ILLINOIS HUNTERS who want to get in a few extra days of hunting waterfowl, will be interested in knowing that the season opens Oct. 3 in Wisconsin, 20 days before fowl can be disturbed here in Illinois.

The Wisconsin season on waterfowl opens officially at 1 p. m. Oct. 3 while the Illinois season gets going at noon, Oct. 23. The shooting in this state ends at sunset, Dec. 16.

WATERFOWL HUNTING REGULATIONS have been relaxed for Northern Illinois hunters to allow them to take 25 mudhens or coons per day instead of the 15 allowed last year. The goose limit is five, two of which may be Canada geese.

A NEW FEATURE THIS YEAR will be the 15-day jacksnipe season, the first since 1941. The bag and possession limit will be eight. Earlier it was reported that there probably would not be a jacksnipe season.

Shooting hours have been increased. Instead of the half hour before sunset limit, the day has been extended to sunset. This applies to both waterfowl and geese. The geese day begins a half hour before sunset.

THE REINSTATING OF KENTUCKY to full time athletic competition will probably show that the Wildcats have been doing little more than champing at the bit during their one-year cage suspension.

If most experts are correct, the Wildcats will resume their normal position among the leaders in college basketball circles.

SPORTS NOTES FROM HERE AND THERE: Ted Williams reported yesterday that "I feel awful good up there at the plate but my legs are telling me I'm not ready to play a full game yet. Ted played five innings yesterday and smashed out a double and a homer.

* * * *

At 8 a. m. on Sept. 6, 1926, a young army captain told his Tennessee football team that "I understand there isn't a single Tennessee man coaching football today. We're going to develop good football coaches as well as good football teams."

TOMORROW NIGHT, the boys who made that statement come true will hold a testimonial banquet for Robert Reese Neyland, now a retired brigadier general.

AMONG NEYLAND'S MOST NOTED SCHOLARS are Herman Hickman, who will be master of ceremonies—and Bobby Dodd, coach at Georgia Tech and mastermind of the College All-Star team.

With Pennant Practically Won Casey Still Plays Day to Day

PHILADELPHIA (AP)— Ole Casey Stengel, well on the way to managing the New York Yankees to their fifth straight American league pennant, put aside his crystal ball today in favor of a "day to day" schedule of winning ball games.

The Yankees' manager, standing on the threshold of becoming the first major league manager in history to pilot a club to five straight pennants, says he's going to let the future take care of itself.

"I'm declining all questions about the pennant race," he stated.

It was pointed out to Casey that his team has an eight game lead over the Chicago White Sox with 40 games remaining in the season.

"Yeah, I know," he replied. "But don't forget I have a Western trip yet. I have to play Cleveland and I have to play Chicago. But I'm not even worried about that—yet. I want to win tonight's two games and then I'll feel better. I'm taking them day by day."

"I know you fellows are working and so on, but I can't out and make a statement about what's going to happen. I know all the teams are up for me and they want to beat us and that's the way it should be. That's life. But looking ahead I can't do. I'm just going to play 'em day by day."

Teen Age Golfers

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)— More than 225 teen-age golfers will converge on the University of Michigan course here, Aug. 17-21, to compete for the first world championship in junior golf.

The International Jaycee Junior Golf tournament will see finalists from a starting field of 25,000 entries. Play-off tourneys are being held in the Panama Canal Zone, South America, Canada, Nova Scotia and Hawaii as well as the U.S.

The winners of each of the area tournaments will be provided with expense money and free transportation to and from Ann Arbor.

Expectant Mother Attempts Robbery Of Bank, Captured

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif.—(AP)—A youthful expectant mother who said she was at her wit's end to meet her bills was held today on a charge of trying to rob a bank with a water pistol.

Mrs. Robin Jolene Smith, 20, an attractive brunette of nearby Burbank, held out the play gun wrapped in a sock Friday and demanded "all the money," teller Mary Madden told police.

Miss Madden dived to the floor and shouted "holdup!" Mrs. Smith was caught in a nearby store by a bank official.

She told officers she and her husband, a film technician, are separated and that she and her 2½ year old son are living with her mother. She said she owes $390.

DEPLETED RANKS

Only nine players on the roster of the Detroit Tigers are left from the Bengal group that started the 1952 campaign.

CHAMPION CHAMPS

CHAMPAIGN — University of Illinois leads all Big Ten schools in total number of championships during history of the Western Conference. The Illini have won 103 outright titles and on 18 occasions have shared crowns with other schools. Closest rival is Michigan with 94 outright championships and 23 shares.

Rhee Expects U. S. Will Fight If Talks Failure

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Syngman Rhee of South Korea said today he believes that if the Korean peace talks fail "the United States will resume the fight to accomplish the common objective" of unifying his embattled country.

His statement, made in a copyrighted interview with the magazine U. S. News and World Report, came in the wake of one by Walter S. Robertson that the United States has not mapped out a specific course of action if it is necessary for the Americans to walk out of the peace talks.

Persuaded Rhee

Robertson is the assistant secretary of state who, as personal representative of President Eisenhower, persuaded Rhee not to obstruct the truce. He agreed that this government will quit the peace talks in 90 days if it appears that the Reds are not negotiating in good faith.

Robertson, in a NBC television interview Sunday, said the United States has not agreed with Rhee to help him in resuming battle unless the Communists break the peace first.

Rhee, in the magazine interview, declared:

1. "I believe the United States will resume the fight in order to accomplish the common objective (of a unified Korea) because the U.S. honor and future security will be at stake. You know the United States is honor bound to reunify Korea."

2. South Korea may leave the peace talks in less time than 90 days "if it is apparent the Communists have no intention of agreeing to the fundamental requirement and merely intend to use the conference for vicious slander and propaganda."

No Neutralization

3. "I have informed President Eisenhower that under no circumstances will we accept any neutralization of Korea. All this would mean would be that we would have to lay down our arms and see our friendly allies withdraw, giving the Communists the chance to strike against us at any time of their choice."

Rhee said he does not regard hopefully U. S. efforts to unify North and South Korea by peaceful means.

Bee Arr, a 300 to one shot in the Kentucky Derby future book, was named after Branch Rickey, general manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

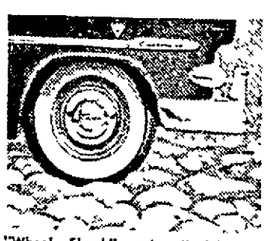
Parking's a pushover with Ford Power-Steering

It's a brand new Ford "Worth More" feature—and costs only $134.40 (plus any local tax)—up to $40 less than any other power steering in its field and it's the newest and finest power steering.

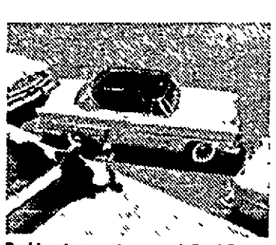
With one finger, while the car is standing still, a woman can turn the steering wheel. No longer will rough road ruts "throw you". Should ever a tire blow out, power steering assistance helps you to keep safe straight-line control.

Ford Power Steering does up to 75% of the work; and it has a more natural "feel" than many others. You don't have to change your driving habits radically. The steering gear ratio is the same as without power steering and the hydraulic system gives you just the right assistance when you need it.

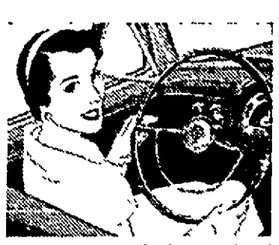
No change in driving habits! You could drive off in a Ford with Power Steering with absolutely no radical change in the way you ordinarily drive a car. . . . just a lot less effort!



"Wheel Shock" reduced! With a hydraulic "cushion" between your steering wheel and the front wheels, Ford Power Steering noticeably reduces "wheel shock" on rough roads.



Parking is a pushover with Ford Power Steering. In fact, all driving is a lot easier and so much more relaxing. You can easily turn the wheel with one finger while the car is standing still.



You're safer! Even if a front tire should blow out, Ford Power Steering comes to your assistance . . . gives you the "muscle" to keep the car under control. That's really extra security!
